

Instructions for Preparing Extended Abstracts

Authors must adhere to the following guidelines when preparing extended abstracts for submission. Failure to follow these instructions may result in rejection or revision requests.

1. Title

- Use a clear and concise title that reflects the content of your work.
- Avoid abbreviations, acronyms, or technical jargon.
- Format: Centered, bold, and in Title Case (e.g., “Additive Manufacturing for Biomedical Implants”).

2. Author Information

- List full names of all authors, centered below the title.
- Include the following for each author: Department, Institution, City, Country.
- Mark the corresponding author with an asterisk (*) and provide their email address.
- Example:

John A. Smith<sup>1</sup>, Priya Mehra<sup>2</sup>, and Luca Rossi<sup>3*</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Department of Mechanical Engineering, XYZ University, London, UK

<sup>2</sup>Department of Materials Science, ABC Institute, New Delhi, India

<sup>3</sup>Institute of Robotics, DEF University, Milan, Italy

*Corresponding author: luca.rossi@defuniv.it

3. Keywords

- Include 4–6 keywords that describe the main topics of your work.
- Place them below the author information.
- Separate keywords with commas.
- Avoid repeating terms already used in the title.

4. Main Body of the Abstract

- Divide the abstract into the following labeled sections:

4.1 Introduction / Background

- Provide a brief overview of the context and relevance of your research.
- Clearly state the problem or knowledge gap being addressed.

4.2 Objectives

- Outline the aims or research questions of your study.
- Highlight the novelty or contribution of your work.

4.3 Methodology

- Briefly describe the methods, materials, or analytical approach used.
- Avoid lengthy technical details; focus on what's essential to understand the approach.

4.4 Results and Discussion

- Present key findings and use 1–2 figures or tables if required.
- Discuss the implications, trends, or patterns observed.
- Ensure all figures/tables are numbered and captioned.

4.5 Conclusions

- Summarize the main takeaway of your work.
- Optionally, include directions for future work or potential applications.

5. Formatting Requirements

- Font: Times New Roman, 12 pt
- Margins: 1 inch (2.54 cm) on all sides
- Line spacing: 1.5
- Length: 800-1000 words
- Figures/Tables: Insert only if essential; ensure clarity and proper referencing
- References: Include 5-8 relevant references, following the Vancouver style

6. Language and Style

- Use formal academic English.
- Avoid unnecessary technical jargon and ensure clarity.
- Maintain logical flow and coherence throughout the text.
- Carefully proofread for spelling, grammar, and formatting errors.
